Think you can challenge Simcraftgr18?

Try it out!

Hey you, yea you! Do you want some free LE? Hehe, of course you do.

But I won't just simply give them to you...

First, you will have to solve some riddles for me. And just so you know, this will not be easy! I, Simon am also known as "The Riddle master!"

Now now, if you still believe you might stand a chance in solving ANY of my riddles, be my guest! HEHE!

I want to make sure you are aware that there will be a very great reward of 12LE that you surely do not want to miss out on, and ONLY the first genius that manages to solve all three of my incredibly difficult riddles will get to have my shiny loot.

BUT! I shall not give you my third riddle yet! Of course that is because not everyone is worthy enough to even try to solve my third and trickiest riddle!

If you believe you have both of the answers to my first two riddles you will need to message me on my discord account named:

Simonperson#2888

If both of your answers happen to be correct.. I will sadly have to give you my third riddle. Which I highly doubt you can solve anyways!

HAHA, who am I kidding? You won't even find the answer to the first two!

Ohh, you'r-.. you're not leaving.. ok SO you actually think you can solve them huh! Let's get right into the first one then. Good luck.

You will need it..

- I want you to tell me which mob is the smallest, yet largest in the whole world of minecraft?

And the second one will be..

- It can be the oasis in a desert, yet it is smaller than a ghast. What is it?

You can always just give up! It's probably your best bet!

I will give you exactly five days from when this was posted, if nobody has solved all three of my riddles by then..

I GUESS I AM THE WINNER! HAHA!

Note: This is all about testing your own intelligence and game knowledge, so I would politely request you do not use google or any other method to find any of the answers to the riddles. Though you can always ask that one friend we all have that knows everything about minecraft!

Keldo127, introduces us to a cursed in-game build!

Hello there members of wynn I am Keldo127! I am the creator of the Lunar Spine Pandemonium Build! The great King!!

Now... Onto the build. The build should have 7 lunar spines and 1 king of hearts, and of course the main star of the show me PANDEMONIUM!

- Ok for powders, 1 Lunar Spine for each element, a neutral one, and a rainbow one. I know this build seems more of a meme. But I use this build in everyday life for its o control capabilities and unpredictable nature. And the fact that is like rolling a dice, the chances to kill your opponent is slim BUT THERES A CHANCE, THIS BUILD CAN BE USED FOR HUNTED MODE! IT IS A TRUE WILD CARD! ok.

And now onto why I picked the parts.. I wanna be unique. All the builds are wayy to similar or its play style is just. Meh. So I thought of the two craziest ideas.

LUNAR SPINE AND PANDEMONIUM!!!

It used to be rainbow but now is a penta build.

BUT IT STILL DOES ITS JOB WELL!!! 69/5 STAR RATING! But, in all seriousness builds that need a crazy amount of skill to use is a real effort. And just wanted to make this cuz well i feel like high skill players are under appreciated, and its the build that takes the glory, so.. Its not the build its self its the user thats willing to play something crazy like that. BUT YEA THIS IS A MEME YOU GUYS SAY HAHA! NOT LIKE ANY OF THE SHIT I JUST SAID MATTERED,

Just a meme build.

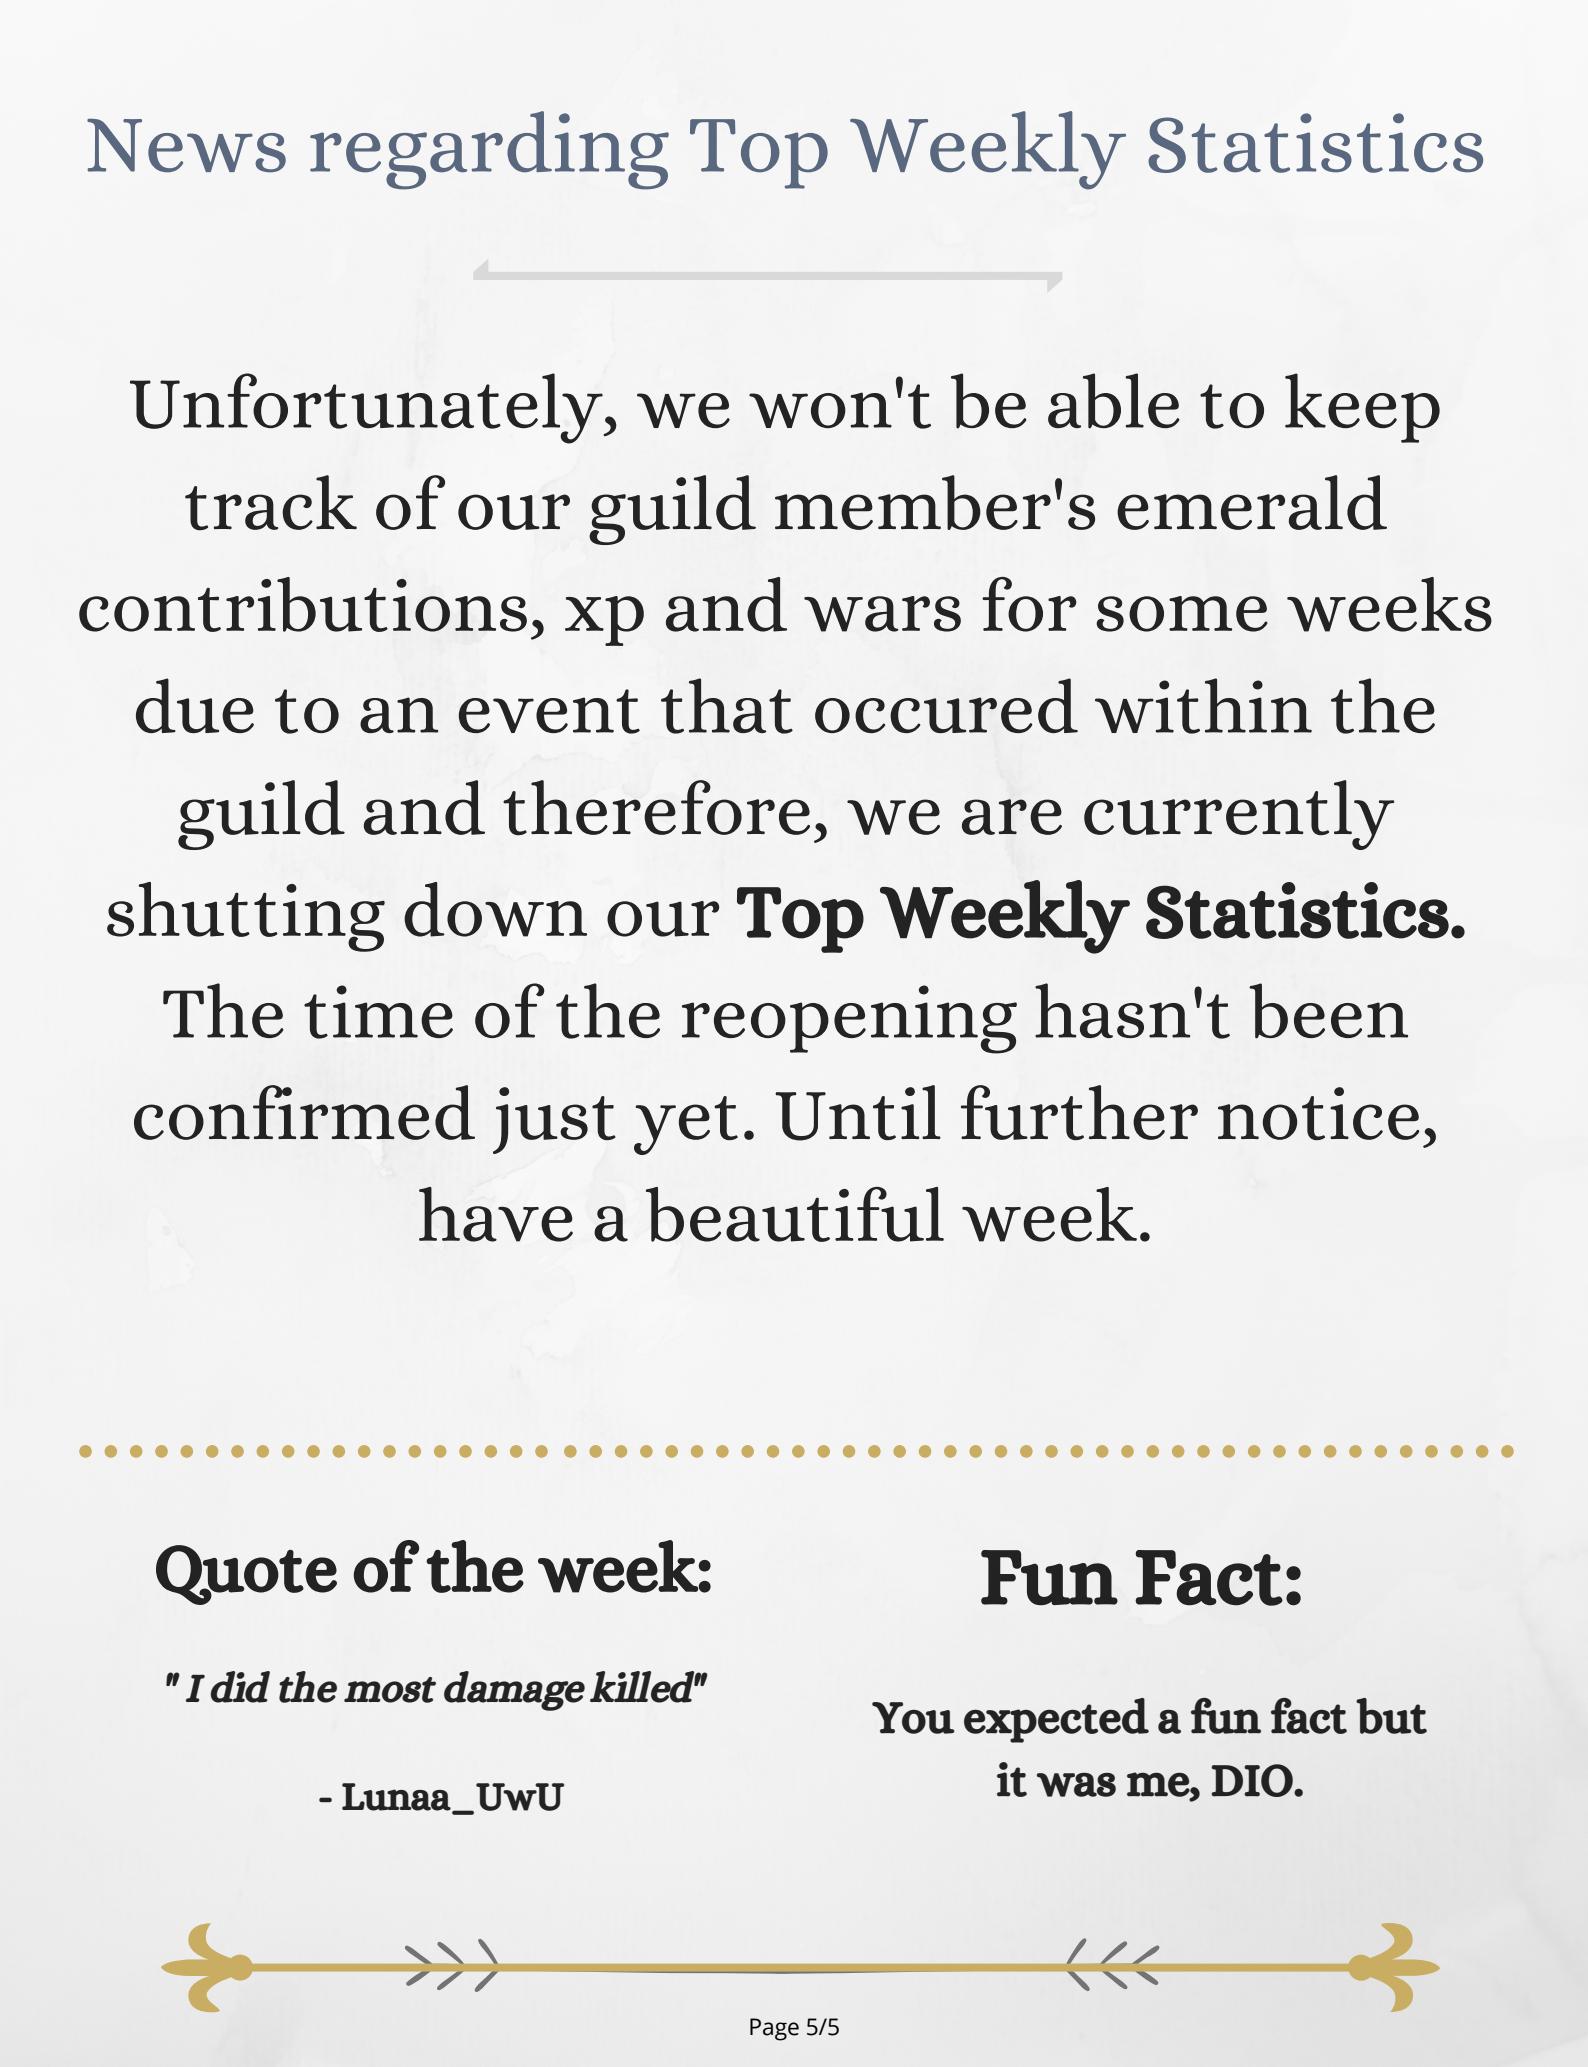

*Here's the official link for the build if you want to..
ehm.. try it out?!*
